Sun Shines On Snowbird Palooza

More Than 50 Vendors Show For Annual Senior Event

Story and photos by Joe Potter

Traffic was slow but steady throughout Saturday's Snowbird Palooza at Zephyr Park.

Healthcare was one of the primary themes of the senior-friendly event, which was held under cloudless skies with spring-like temperatures.

Before the dance Judy and many others went 'Splish Splash' while thinking 'All I Have To Do Is Dream' about the '50s dance at Majestic Oaks RV Resort the evening of Feb. 4. Shirley felt like 'A Teenager in Love' while she was 'At the Hop.' 'Good Golly Miss Molly' was on the floor to 'Rock Around The Clock' with the music of T-N-T. On the dance floor there was a 'Whole Lotta Shakin' Goin' On.'

'Diana' found the 'Great Pretender.' Greg said 'I Only Have Eyes For You' Jan. Would you please 'Love Me Tender?' In the bathroom, Betty could be found putting on her 'Maybelline.' Charles believes that 'Everybody Loves a Lover' as he asked Ruby to 'Don't Be Cruel' to this 'Teen Angel.' Jack said to Walter 'Oh Lonesome Me' I don't

We ended the month with a park-wide sale on Jan. 28, hosted by Ann Shrauger and Judy Mohney. The gate opened at 7:30 a.m. and the traffic was busy with people looking for treasures. We had the clubhouse full of good items and the scent of Cinnamon rolls and coffee filled the air in the morning.

At 10 a.m. the golf crew was grilling hot dogs with all the toppings. Soft drinks were also included in the price. Thirty-six homes had carport sales that day. Two Walmart cards were raffled at no cost and were awarded that day. Raffle tickets were sold understand this 'Book of Love.' Denise wore 'Chantilly Lace' and came to the dance with 'Johnny B. Goode.' Susan asked 'Please Send Me Someone To Love' and melt these 'Hearts Of Stone.'

Joy could be seen in her 'Blue Suede Shoes' while she jitterbugged across the dance floor with Travis Golden. 'In the Still of the Night' Carol could be seen trying to 'Catch A Falling Star' while she was taking a break from the 'Melody Of Love.' Pete asked almost every one 'Do You Wanna Dance?' They said it was just a 'Teen-Age Crush.' But, Pete wishes he could get a room at the 'Heartbreak Hotel.'

The next morning after the dance,

'The Fat Man' felt like he had seen the 'Purple People Eater' and he really thought 'I Almost Lost My Mind.' Donna said 'To Know Him, Is To Love Him' and Jim said he was just 'All Shook Up.' Jean believes 'Ain't That A Shame' how some people indulge. 'Oh, Boy!' The 'Party Doll' that thought 'I'm Gonna Get Married,' but found 'Tears On My Pillow' and asked 'I Wonder Why' when the 'Poor Little Fool' found that 'Lonely Boy' after the dance when she went to 'Wake Up Little Susie.' She asked 'Who's Sorry Now?'

As in every year past, the '50's dance left 'Moments To Remember' with everyone that attended. It also taught us all about 'Love And Marriage' and that 'Tonight You Belong To Me.'

Donna Weekly won the bubble-blowing contest, while competitors Andy Cormier and David Teague look on.

Jan and Greg Hobbs were the costume contest winners.

Original 'Tiny Homes' On Tour in Brooksville

Are you interested in living large in a small space? Do you wish you could take your house with you when you travel? Has the idea of a tiny house stirred your fancy? If so, then head out to the Sertoma Youth Ranch on Feb. 25, to visit the Tin Can Tourists' 98th Winter Convention and Open House from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Members of the Tin Can Tourists (TCT), America's oldest trailer and motor coach club, believe that the coolest tiny homes are vintage travel trailers. Ranging in average length from 8 feet to 30 feet, these tiny restored homes on wheels offer life on the road where space is limited but style and substance are not.

"Every inch of space in a vintage camper has been well thought out and put to good use," says Forrest Bone, the club's national president. "Most of these trailers have less than 100 to 200 square feet of living space, with fully functional storage, sleeping, and cooking areas ready to hit the road at a moment's notice."

"Our members really enjoy showing

On average, tiny homes range in length from 8 feet to 30 feet.

off their restored vintage trailers, motor coaches, and tow vehicles," said TCT member Alex Alexander from DeFuniak Springs. "Whether you're looking to enjoy simpler living in a smaller more efficient space, or just want to bask in the nostalgic glow of past family vacations, you will enjoy this tour."

Approximately 80 vintage trailers and coaches ranging in age from the 1930s to the 1980s can be toured during this one-day event. It's well worth the drive to see these "original tiny homes" and meet the people who have lovingly restored them to their former glory. But be forewarned, you may leave this event with a firm urge to downsize to your own stylish vintage camper. The Tin Can Tourists Open House is open to the public. There is a parking fee of $5 per car for the tour.

Directions to Sertoma Youth Ranch: Take I-75 to Exit 293. Go East on Blanton Road (State Road 41) toward Dade City for about two miles. Turn left on Clay Hill Road and follow it for 1.8 miles to the Sertoma Youth Ranch on the left. Note: Clay Hill Road becomes Meyers Road just before reaching the Ranch.

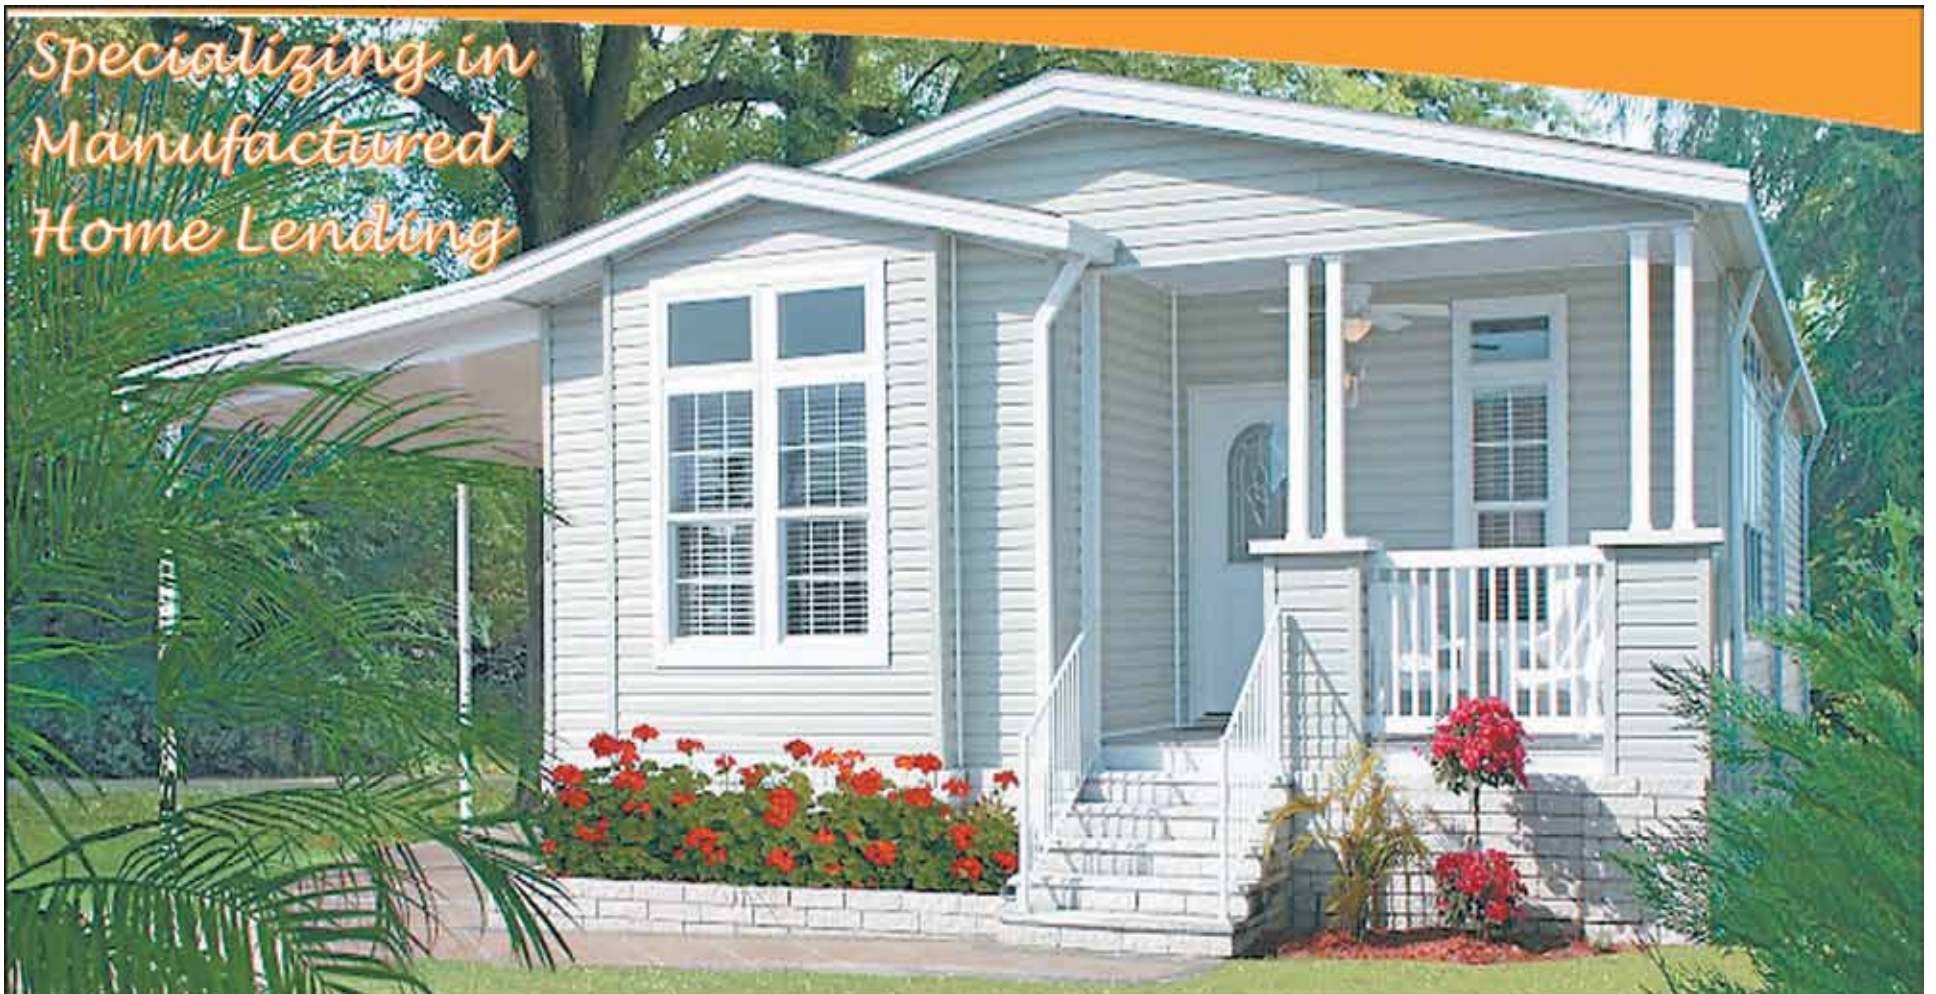

Contact Forrest Bone at (941) 302-2415 or tincantourists@gmail.com or visit www.tincantourists.com for information.

Although small, tiny homes are known for their functionality and ability to provide necessary services in such a small space

About 80 vintage trailers and coaches ranging in age from the 1930s to the 1980s will be on display at the Feb. 25 event.

Quilt Show A Success

Thank you to all who attended the Leisure Days Quilt Show on Feb. 4 and to everyone who made it such a great event. There were many familiar faces and many new. Everyone enjoyed viewing the many quilts on display. We look forward to seeing everyone again next year.

Medicare Guidance Offered

Do you have questions about Medicare's financial assistance programs for seniors? Are you new to Medicare or do you have questions about your Medicare plan?

The Area Agency on Aging of Pasco & Pinellas County has a SHINE program where they assist seniors and retirees with Medicare questions.

SHINE is a Florida Department of Elder Affairs program through which volunteers provide free, unbiased one-on-one insurance counseling and information about Medicare options and prescription drug assistance for elders and their families and caregivers.

There are several locations in Pasco County to meet with a Shine counselor. The New River library as well as other locations is available to assist. Call (727) 570-9696 x273 or visit www.floridashine.org to make an appointment or view other locations.

assess your risk and evaluate your heart function. There are three key risk factors which include either high blood pressure, high cholesterol or smoking tobacco. Unfortunately, almost 50% of Americans struggle with these risks. Diabetes mellitus and obesity have also emerged as strong risks contributing to the development of a heart attack. It is estimated that approximately 735,000 Americans experience a heart attack every year. Of that population, 525,000 experience a first time heart attack, while 210,000 have previously had a heart attack. Symptoms of a heart attack can vary from chest pain, heaviness, tightness, shortness of breath, to left neck or jaw pain, and even fatigue, nausea and sweating. These symptoms can differ between men and women.

Avoid The Heartbreak!

Yes, Valentine's Day is upon us this month and while many celebrate this day, health care providers celebrate the American Heart Month. I believe the Tin Man from the Wizard of Oz put it best when he said, "Now I know I've got a heart because it is breaking." Broken hearts are becoming increasingly common. According to the CDC, every 43 seconds someone is having a heart attack. While this statistic is shocking, it's no surprise that heart disease is the leading cause of death in the United States.

Whether you've had a heart attack or have had a loved one suffer from it, with these facts, it's important to Reducing your risk for developing a heart attack plays a central role in the prevention and preservation of your heart function. This could be addressed simply as an annual physical every year with your primary care provider or a follow up appointment with your cardiologist. Physicians can provide an assessment of your risks, treat those risks and determine your goals to hopefully achieve a positive health outcome.

for a beautiful quilt made by Marion Gilbert and tickets were also sold for three large baskets filled with all kinds of goodies. These will be drawn at the Valentine Dance. Winners do not need to be present to win. It was a great success and we thank Judy and Ann for a job well done.

Next up was our ice cream social, hosted by Nancy Noble and Linda Smith. Fifty five residents attended. We celebrated 15 January and July birthdays and the anniversaries of three couples. Cake, coffee and, of course, ice cream were served. Everything was yummy.

Our pancake breakfast, hosted by Paula and Bob Pelcher, was held on Feb. 4 at the clubhouse. Her crew was Robert and Kathy Lunn, Hal Russell, Al and Lolly Shave, Bill and Chris Dowd, Nancy Deal, Barbara Fitzgerald, Thersa Bowsby, Nancy Noble and Tom Balenda. It was a rocky start as we lost power in the middle of the cooking. The generator kicked in and all was well till the end. Good thing, as the generator broke down shortly after finishing. Eighty-eight residents were served and all ended well.

Residents stretch their legs up at a group exercise.

A Superbowl party was held at the clubhouse on Feb. 5, hosted by Joe Ensel and Howard Dockett. Everyone brought snacks to pass and their own drinks. Pizza was ordered at half time for all. Needless to say, it was an amazing game to see. Seeing that I am from Boston, you know who I was rooting for.

Our coffee hour on Feb. 7 had 108 residents come for donuts and coffee. The social club president, Ellen Russell, introduced the three new officers:

Dotty Copeland, vice president; Althea Gaumont, secretary, and Nancy Deal, treasurer. These coffee hours are where we get all the information going on in the park to the residents. It is amazing what is going on and coming up for this park.

We have a Valentine Dance, entertainment from Johnny Ellis, and a soup supper, just to name a few things coming up. More information will be available on this next issue.

Till next time.

The Valleydale board of directors.

of Zephyrhills, Humana, JSA Medical Group, Care Plus and the Eye Clinic of Florida participated in the event.

Free health checks were provided and keynote speakers discussed health-related topics.

A variety of carnival type food was available to whet the appetite of attendees, including Team Love Seafood and Maine-iacs. Maine-iacs offered various types of lobster dishes ranging from lobster macaroni and cheese to rolls to, sliders and bisque.

The old standbys of hot dogs, french fries, corndogs, funnel cakes and deep fried Oreo cookies were also available.

An Elvis impersonator entertained the crowd while performing at the Wickstrom Bandstand. Some members of the audience occasionally got up and danced alongside the 'King' while having their photographs taken with him.

One of the more colorful booths was Cigar Art by Jean, operated by Jean Mauser of Tampa. Her husband owns a cigar store there and has saved cigar labels for many years. Mauser creates decorative items by fastening the cigar labels to plates and platters and saucers.

Robert Powell of Chest to Bed was on hand to demonstrate how a chest of drawers or entertainment centers could be used as a headboard for a bed.

A free magic show was another highlight of the event that was organized by Simplyeventsfl.com.

Carlisle Events AutoFest

TV's Eddie Munster Announced For The Annual February Event

It's becoming a bit of a tradition for the team at Carlisle Events to not only showcase classic cars as part of its AutoFest events in Lakeland, but to also bring some of TV's most iconic stars to town too.

The trend continues Feb. 23-26 at the SUN 'n FUN campus with the addition of Butch Patrick to the event weekend. Patrick, who played little Eddie Munster on the '60s TV show, "The Munsters," will be on hand all weekend to meet fans, sign autographs and more.

Butch Patrick, who played Eddie Munster on TV will be on hand all weekend to meet fans.

As mentioned above, Patrick is best known as Eddie Munster from the CBS comedy that ran from 1964-1966. He reprised the role for a 1966 feature film and also starred as Mark on the ABC Saturday morning series, "Lidsville," from 1971-1973. It's his Munsters career that endeared him to millions though and it's that role and its corresponding popularity that brings him to Lakeland.

"I was just happy to be part of a TV show that has such a timeless following," said Patrick from his home in Florida. "People today really seem to enjoy nostalgic shows with real family values even if it's a family of lovable monsters."

In addition to Patrick himself, he's bringing with him a handful of ghoulishly unique cars. "The Munsters" themed display not only includes Patrick, but the Munster Koach and Dragula tribute cars, the original 1964 Barris/Von Dutch chain link Schwinn Stingray Bike, and other Munsters props, including a Munsters go-cart, baseball bat, Wolf Wolf, miniature spot and street signs.

An autograph for any item brought to the event is $20. In addition, Patrick and his team will have items for sale, including photos, shirts and photo ops with the famed rides that are part of his display. Prices will vary and will be listed at his onsite location. Posing photos are included for free with the purchase of any item from him or with the purchase of an autograph.

Winter AutoFest itself isn't just about this special guest, but also about a swap meet, car corral, two-day collector car auction and car show. One hundred years of automotive history will be on display and the event is unlike anything else in the region, plus it's affordable family fun.

Adult tickets are $10 per day and kids 12 and under are free. Complete details are available at www.CarlisleEvents.com.

A New Store For Old Things

Downtown's newest antique store offers everything from jewelry, furniture and other knick-knacks, but specializes in collecting Disney memorabilia. Photo Provided

by Keri McAlpine

Disney era.

To accompany their new wooden sign on the storefront, the owners of K&M Treasures and Antiques downtown held an open house and official ribbon cutting ceremony with the Greater Zephyrhills Chamber of Commerce on Jan. 28. Storeowner William Murphy, aka "Murph" handed out seven $20 gift certificates as part of a raffle during the open house.

The more than 100 visitors were able to walk through the many aisles of the store, which offers an array of antiques and memorabilia. Although they contain many different kinds of items, Murph says his specialty and passion is in "Disneyana," or the collecting of Disney pieces. He says he has all kinds of stuff from the 1930s

The store officially opened on Dec. 3 just in time for the Festival of Lights. Murph moved the store to downtown Zephyrhills from his previous location on State Road 54.

"We love it. We love the ambiance of downtown. It's old - it's where an antique store should be," Murph said with a chuckle.

Since opening, he has been working on several renovations to the space, and is currently working to open up part of the back of the building so more floor space will be available to display and for customers to walk through.

K&M Treasures and Antiques is located at 8438 Fifth Ave., and can be reached by calling (813) 312-4282 or by visiting Facebook.com/AntiquesbyKandM.

WHITE MARLIN RV PARK

Jammin' To The Beat Spaghetti Dinner This Saturday

Submitted by Donna Crockett-Wing
White Marlin RV Park

We had a wonderful turnout for our pancake breakfast on Jan. 28. The most important meal of the day consisted of blueberry and strawberry pancakes made to order with sausage, juices and coffee, all you could eat.

Our music jams are coming along terrifically. More and more people are showing up every week. Everyone has such a wonderful time. Every Tuesday afternoon from 1 to 3 p.m. with a snack break to give the musicians a little break.

On Feb. 18 our park will be hosting a spaghetti supper with salads, garlic bread and desserts. Supper will be served at 5 p.m. Live music and dancing starts at 7 p.m.

That's it for now. Stay tuned.

Residents enjoying their syrup filled breakfasts, while others take a break in between bites.
