ZHS Dispatches River Ridge As Playoffs Begin

Aliza Quiles puts up a shot Tuesday against River Ridge in the opening round of the Class 6A-District 8 playoffs.

Story and photos by Dave Walters

Aliza Quiles scored 28 points Tuesday night to lead the Bulldogs to a 64-46 win against River Ridge in the opening round of the Class 6A-District 8 playoffs.

This was Zephyrhills' first step toward defending its district title from last year. In this year's tournament, Zephyrhills, Hudson and Ridgewood all finished the season with identical 13-3 district records.

"I don't know that being the defending champs puts a target on our backs because everybody has been equal this year," said Bulldog coach Mike Novak. "That's the way it is. Nobody is a favorite at this point."

Tuesday's win advanced the Bulldogs to the district semifinals to face the winner of Wesley Chapel/Hudson.

Quiles put on a shooting clinic against the Knights in the first half, lighting up River Ridge with 21 points including 14 in the second quarter.

The Bulldogs never trailed in the game

Quiles, Clarke Take A Bow

Seniors Have Been 'Role Models' For Bulldogs

Story and photos by Dave Walters

The stellar careers of two senior Zephyrhills basketball players were honored Friday night in the Bulldogs final home regular season game, a 72-51 thumping of Citrus.

Aliza Quiles and Dre'wan Clarke, two crucial pieces of the Bulldogs success during the last three seasons, played their season-ending game inside the "Dog House."

Combining for 23 points in the victory, the tandem worked the inside and outside with precision. Junior Kurt Robbins was a dominant force as well at the post pouring in 21 points of his own.

"It's good to be able to play with that much fun regardless if it's Senior Night or not, but with it being our last regular season home game here, made it special," said Quiles, a four-year varsity letterman. "It came so quick. It seems like yesterday was the first game of the season."

An emotional player on the court, Quiles noted that when the playoffs are finished, the emotions will kick in much harder.

Dre'wan Clark (11) plays tight defense Friday night against Citrus and junior Kurt Robbins (24) and Aliza Quiles (5) defend down low.

Senior night honored Dre'wan Clarke, Keith Brockington and Aliza Quiles for their contribution to Bulldog basketball.

"It's emotional for me," he said. "Deep down, I'm going to miss each one of those guys. It gives me a lot of pride to play here. On this court, there has been a lot of blood sweat and tears. It was worth it."

Quiles and Clarke enjoyed dominance on the Zephyrhills hardwood as they played a huge role in the 22-game home winning streak that dated back to January of 2015. That streak was snapped last week in a 76-55 loss to Wiregrass.

"It's crazy how fast it all happened," said Clarke, who played three years on the varsity level. "I can't believe that was our last home game together. It has been a blessing to play on this court."

"It was the perfect ending. Being a Bulldog means a lot and it has been a privilege." First-year head coach Mike Novak was quite privileged to have two incredible seniors to lead his team.

"They were leaders and we have a young team," he said. "They provided that leadership these kids needed. They are role models. You have to have that senior leadership and they stepped up when they needed to and did a great job."

The Bulldogs fell to Citrus in Inverness earlier in the season, but avenged the loss with Friday's drubbing at the Dog House. The Bulldogs led by as much as 31 in the final quarter.

"A game like this was fun," Novak said. "It was nice to have a game where we had such a team effort."

and jumped out to a 17-7 advantage in the opening quarter despite having five turnovers.

After Quiles nailed six shots in the second quarter, including two from behind the arc, Zephyrhills went into the locker room at the half with a 37-24 lead.

“We still have to do better,” Quiles said. “We need to be stronger when teams press us. We have some young guys who don’t have a lot of experience and they need to come through for us. They will get there.”

In the third quarter, junior center Kurt Robbins took over cleanup duties with six rebounds. Quiles added his final seven points of the game.

“We have to cut down on the turnovers,” Robbins said. “We played pretty good on defense and overall, we did well, but we still have to play harder if we want to win the district title.”

Consistent play from senior forward Dre’wan Clarke resulted in a 15-point performance.

“We have to keep playing hard and playing strong defense if we want to win this district again,” Clarke said. “If we can do that, we can pull this through. We have to defend the title, but we can only do that if we play smart.”

What didn’t show up in the scoreboard was the strong defensive play of Myles Carter, who was a major disruption to the Knights’ offensive plans. The junior guard finished with five steals.

“The key tonight was the defensive effort especially from Myles,” Novak said. “He was all over the place.”

Strong defensive play by Dre’wan Clarke (11), Cartrell Strong (23), Myles Carter (1) and Kurt Robbins (24) was a huge factor in the Bulldogs’ 64-46 win against River Ridge on Tuesday night.

Girls Set New ZHS Records

Heavy Lifting For Coach Rinaldo’s Crew

by Dave Walters

The Lady Bulldogs continued to rewrite Zephyrhills High School record books with an epic finish last Friday during the FHSAA State Weightlifting Finals.

The history-making performance by the Bulldogs’ 7th place team finish at Belleview High School came from the efforts of Jessica Guadarrama, Abby Shafer and Sarah First.

In the 183-pound weight class, Guadarrama continued her path to greatness with a state runner-up finish by breaking both her ZHS bench press and clean and jerk records with a 175-pound bench press and a 175-pound clean and jerk, ending the day with a 350-pound total. Her runner-up finish was the first in Zephyrhills school history for the sport.

In the unlimited weight class, sophomore Shaffer captured a fourth place medal with a new school record in the bench press with a 185-pound lift and a 205-pound clean and jerk for an impressive 390-pound total.

Proof that size and strength don’t go hand-in-hand, First, at 101 pounds, ended with a 6th place finish and state medal by benching a new Bulldog school record with a 120-pound lift, eclipsing a 12-year-old mark set by Leann Carroll. First finished with a 230 total on the day in her first and final season for the Lady Bulldogs.

Mildred Fochtman Celebrates 102 Years

'Never Planned On Living This Long'

"I never learned to smoke or to drink," Mildred Mary "Millie" Fochtman said when asked on Jan. 26 what her secret was to a long life.

"And she had great kids," one of her sons, Gerald Sayles, chimed in, drawing laughter from the large crowd gathered for the occasion.

Fochtman currently holds the distinction of being the oldest resident of American House, the assisted living facility on Pretty Pond Road where she resides. Another resident there will be turning 102 years old in a few months.

"I never planned on living this long. They just kept coming – one by one by one," Fochtman said.

She has four children – three sons and one daughter – and 16 grandchildren and 22 great-grandchildren.

All of her children – Phil, Robert II, Shirley and Gerald – were from her marriage to Phil Sayles, who passed away more than 40 years ago.

Several members of her family were on hand for the occasion.

Fochtman grew up on a farm in Laingsburg, Mich., which is near the state capital of Lansing. She had three brothers and a sister. Her sister, Thelma, who is in her early 90s, is her only surviving sibling.

Fochtman was valedictorian of her graduating class at Laingsburg High School.

Her first job out of high school was as a secretary with the Laingsburg School District. "I went to Perry to work because I couldn't get along with the superintendent at Laingsburg," she said. Perry is 11 miles from Laingsburg.

She worked for the Perry School District for nearly 40 years before retiring at age 60 to travel with her second husband, Robert Fochtman.

Fochtman said she didn't have any additional education after high school, that she learned her job "the hard way – by doing it."

"I did everything from going to the bank every day to doing payroll every two weeks," said Fochtman. "They wanted me to come back after I retired," she said, smiling.

The Fochtmans visited Alaska, Hawaii, and several other states. They had a travel trailer and were members of a travel trailer club.

Mr. Fochtman also passed away several years ago.

She said she enjoyed fishing in Charlamagne, Mich., "in her younger years."

Debbie Bond of the American House presents Millie Fochtman with her birthday cake.

Fochtman's hobbies include playing cards and crocheting.

She remembers voting for Franklin Delano Roosevelt in 1936 when he was running for his second term. "I vote for the person, not the party," she said.

Fochtman noted that she has lived at some other facilities before moving to American House, where she said she feels "at home."

Golf With A Purpose And Help Support Samaritan Project

The sixth annual Samaritan Project golf tournament will be held Feb. 11 at Silverado Golf & Country Club.

There will be an 8:30 a.m. shotgun start for the event.

The format is a 4-player scramble. People may pair up as a foursome or the pro shop will select members for teams.

The $50 entry fee per player includes golf, food and prizes.

Proceeds will benefit The Samaritan Project, a cooperative ministry of local churches, businesses and city government. The Samaritan Project seeks to help residents who need extra help with rent, electric bills or other needs not met through other programs.

For assistance or information, please call (813) 810-8670.

Hole sponsorships are available for a $100 donation. A corporate sponsorship is available for $500. This is for four players and includes premiere placement of your banner.

A prize package (optional) is available for $10. It consists of two closest to the pin awards; a putting contest; closest to the line; 1 mulligan; 1 drink ticket ($5 from the prize package goes directly to charity.

Jarrett Ford is the $10,000 hole in one sponsor for the tournament.

The Garden Gate Garden Club of Zephyrhills

The next meeting will be held at the Magnuson Hotel's conference room on Feb. 16 at 10 a.m. We will be learning about Propagation Oddities by Master Gardener, Ada Weitzel. Our hostesses will be Voni Giese and Shirley DeBoe. You are invited to attend. Call (813) 782-8004 for information.

Elks Lodge #2731

The Zephyrhills Elks Lodge is located at 6851 Wire Road. Fish Fry every Friday evening 4:30-6:30 p.m. with music and dancing. Menu is fried or baked Haddock, shrimp or baked chicken, baked potato or french fries, coleslaw or applesauce. Cost is $10. Karaoke by Dudley is every Tuesday with dinner at 4:30 p.m. with varying menus. Karaoke begins at 6 p.m. All events are open to Elks and invited guests. Call (813) 782-4604 for information.

Ladies Oriental Shrine Cairo Court #97

There are 22 Shriners' Hospitals for Children in North America. Children with scoliosis, cleft palate, burns, spinal cord injuries, orthopedic conditions, and other serious conditions are eligible for care. Patients are cared for in a family-centered environment and are provided with medical treatments, psychological support services, transitional services and rehabilitation, regardless of race, color, creed, gender or sect, disability, national origin, or the ability of a patient or family to pay.

The local LOSNA group, Cairo Court #97 of Zephyrhills, meets on the third Wednesday of each month (September through May) at the Zephyrhills Masonic Hall at 5950 12th St.

Pasco County Genealogical Society

You're invited to our Feb. 11 meeting from 10 a.m.-12 p.m. at the Church of the Latter Day Saints, 9016 Fort King Road. Our speaker will be Susan Lewis Well. Her topic will be Deeds: An Insider's View. A land records office has a rhythm to the days and weeks, and seasons to the year. The speaker has twenty-five years of experience in real estate and is ready to share how genealogists can use the nature of the land records office to their advantage. Learn what information to expect from a deed and how to extract the relevant facts from the unfamiliar wording. Call (813) 546-9294 for information.

Fraternal Order of Eagles Ladies Auxiliary

The Eagles Ladies Auxiliary will be hosting a "Margaritaville Party" on Feb. 18 starting at 5 p.m. Dinner will be served and the cost will be $6 and a choice of: baked chicken or ham, Hawaiian rice, salad and rolls. Games, raffles and a band will be present along with drink specials. Call (813) 780-1558 for information.

The Eagles Ladies Auxiliary is a great way to volunteer your time to make a difference in someone's life. We are a community-based organization that is not for profit located at 4149 New River Road in Zephyrhills.

East Pasco Writers Forum

The East Pasco Writers Forum now meets in the clubhouse of Country Aire Manor, a mobile home retirement community located at 10249 U.S. 98 in Dade City. Thanks to Marjorie Nanian and her family for making the clubhouse available to us.

The writers critique group meets every second Thursday morning of each month at 10 a.m. The next meeting will be Feb. 9. Meetings are divided into three sections: the first section for critiques of original works brought by members and visitors, the second section for critiques of the voluntary monthly writing assignment, and the final section, reserved for a lesson designed to help members and visitors improve their craft. Meetings last between two and three hours. Lynn Merrell, a published writer and editor, leads the group. Call Merrell at (352) 583-0041 for more information or directions to the clubhouse.

East Pasco Networking Group

The next meeting of the East Pasco Networking Group will be Feb. 14 at 7:30 a.m. and our new usual location at The Village Inn in Zephyrhills, 5214 Gall Blvd. and will feature Al Berry, Strawberry Festival Emeritus. As usual, Al will bring his keen sense of humor and door prizes.

Contact Nils Lenz at (813) 782-9491 or nilslenz@gmail.com, or Vicky Jones at (813) 431-1149 or donlvicl@yahoo.com or manager@palmtreehmp.com, or any of our board members for information or suggested topics you would like to hear about or to suggest specific speakers.

If you would like to speak, contact us now to schedule your time, as we are currently scheduling for 2017.
