

Softball Event Benefits Weightlifters

ZHS Team Grapples With Monetary Costs Of Success

Story and photos by Dave Walters

More than two dozen softball players turned out Saturday in a fundraiser for the Zephyrhills High School boys' weightlifting team, which will compete in the Class 1A Region 6 Championships.

The players competed in a charity softball game and home run derby at Krusen Field in support of the Bulldog lifters who have enjoyed huge success this season.

Sixteen ZHS wrestlers have qualified for the upcoming regional meet at Belleview, but with success comes some expenses.

To help with those expenses, the softball outing was organized by Cody Keeling and Adam Wilkes at Krusen and managed to raise $250 for the team. There have been other donations made in recent weeks to assist the team.

"This game is great support for our program," said coach Chris Barrick. "Weightlifting isn't the most funded sport at Zephyrhills and I understand that. These guys [Keeling and Wilkes] put this on and put money in our account."

Barrick said the recent support would also help in the purchase of new uniforms for next season.

Last season, Zephyrhills' team was made up of just 12 lifters with seven regional qualifiers.

This season, Barrick put together a team of 26 lifters

Late-Inning Heroics Put Away Ridgewood

Cherokee Hagans could have put a big "S" on the front of his Zephyrhills jersey Friday night as he turned out to be the hero in a dramatic 4-3 extra-inning win against Ridgewood.

Hagans came on in relief in the eighth inning and threw three shutout innings before roping a single through the middle with two men on in the bottom of the 10th for the game-winner. His thrilling RBI also – with no seniors – and finished district runner-up this season behind Gulf.

“We had the potential to win the district and it didn’t happen,” Barrick said. “We have all these kids coming back next year, so I am very optimistic about next season.”

On his way to a district title, sophomore Ethan Vest broke the school clean and jerk record at 290 pounds. John First claimed a district title in the 119-pound class.

“We have a lot of kids who play football out for the weightlifting team which will transfer to the field,” Barrick said. “We will be a lot stronger. We have kids who have gone up 50 pounds in both of their lifts this season.”

gave him the win on the mound as well.

“I just watched it to make sure it went through,” Hagans said. “We just stayed in there and battled through the whole game.”

With one out in the 10th, Kolbe Lupinek and Connor Young hit back-to-back singles to put runners at first and second. A balk by Rams pitcher Jarrod Lyon moved the runners to second and third to set the table for Hagans’ clutch hit.

“They could have quit tonight and they didn’t,” said Bulldog coach Rusty Guynn. “They battled back. Our seniors have to do this night in and night out. This is the game we’ve been waiting on so we can get these younger kids in to get these big hits.”

The Rams held the Bulldogs to one hit through six innings and had a strong 3-0 advantage heading into the bottom of the 7th.

But the lead wasn’t strong enough. Hagans opened the inning by reaching base on an error. He scored on a sacrifice by Trey Owens. Trailing 3-1 with two outs, Dalton Gold ripped a double down the third base line and Marcus Gonzalez added a two-run double to knot the game at 3.

Gold went the first seven innings on the mound for the Bulldogs allowing three runs on three hits with nine strikeouts to keep the Bulldogs in the game. He led the team offensively going 2-for-5 with a single and a double.

Hagans started the 8th inning and retired the last eight batters he faced, picking up three strikeouts and not allowing a ball out of the infield.

“Cherokee hit his spots very well tonight. He doesn’t get rattled. He can move the ball in and out. He did well and that’s all we can ask of him,” Guynn said.

In all the excitement, the scoreboard keeper placed the winning run on the Ridgewood side, but the celebration at first base by the Bulldogs left little doubt as to who won the game.

Pets of the Week

KIMMY

A34301286

Kimmy is a younger girl that does great with children and adults alike and has been a part of the doggie play group. She is heartworm positive but that is treatable. This girl is ready to love and cuddle but be prepared to play as well.

HARTLYN

Hartlyn is a sweet girl about two years old. She is a staff and volunteer favorite and adores getting attention. This pretty, little lady is desperate to find someone who can love on her and pet her as much as they can.

Adopt one of these or other adorable pets today!

He is survived by his wife, Sharon Jones; brother, Pat (Shirley) Jones of Tampa; children, Deborah Jahnigen of Tampa, Michael (Kiki) Jones of Tampa, Susan (Damon) Seals of Zephyrhills, Mark (Maria) Jones of Gainesville, Va., Kimberly (Chris) Delgado-Jones of Riverview, and Kyle Jones of Dade City. His son, James W. Jones Jr. of Round Rock, Texas; many grandchildren and great-grandchildren and dear nieces and nephews also survive him. Services will be held March 24 at 3 p.m. at the U.S. 301 Chapel of Hodges Funeral Home in Dade City. The family will receive friends from 2-3 p.m.

James R. Mayes Jr.

MAYES, James R. Jr., 85, died March 4, 2017. His wife, Joyce, and his loving family survive him. Whitfield Funeral Home handled arrangements.

Faith D. Potter

POTTER, Faith D., 70, of Zephyrhills, died on March 4, 2017, at her residence. Faith was born in Mayfield, Mich., on Aug. 31, 1946, to Truman and Ernestine (Wardell) Smith. Faith was a faithful and dedicated caregiver to many elderly friends and was a member of Fair Haven Baptist Church in Zephyrhills. She was preceded in death by her parents and siblings. Joyce Currier, Sandy Childers, Paul Smith, David Smith, Chris Brandt and Tim Smith. She is survived by her children, Kathleen Davis, Roxanne Seekins, Joseph Canaday, Deborah Watson and Melissa McLeod; siblings, Gary Smith, Truman Smith, Bill Smith, Tom Smith, Daniel Smith, Phillip Smith, Marcia Hotchkiss, Becky Muxlow, Bonnie Day, Dawn Massey, Debbie Giuliano and Renee Goodell; grandchildren, Eva, Pj and Kathleen Seekins, Katie and Brandon Lang, Leigh and Bobby Greer and Kenny and Meghan Billings; great-grandchildren, Heaven, Elijah and, Kenneth Billings. Services were held March 11 at Fair Haven Baptist Church in Zephyrhills. Flowers will be accepted or donation may be made to Fair Haven Baptist Church. Faith was laid to rest at Chapel Hill Gardens Cemetery in Dade City. Hodges Family Funeral Home handled arrangements.

Donald Eugene Turnage

TURNAGE, Donald Eugene, 79, of Dade City, died peacefully on March 18, 2017, in Tampa. Mr. Turnage was born on Aug. 16, 1937, in Lacochee, a small town he said had wooden sidewalks. He lived at various places throughout the United States. He met his high school sweetheart and love of his life at Pasco High, Annette Fay Turnage, who survives him after 57 years of marriage. He graduated from Pasco High School in 1955. He was an offensive lineman on a football team that made a deep state playoff run that year and he was voted most intelligent in his senior year. Mr. Turnage served his country for 20 years in the U.S. Navy, attaining the rank of Master Chief Petty Officer. During his military career, Mr. Turnage and his family, enjoyed some of the most wonderful times of their lives living in Italy, Japan, Morocco and throughout the United States. During his travels, Mr. Turnage experienced life to the fullest. He drove his jet-black MGA Roadster on the Appian Way; he climbed Mt. Fuji multiple times; he journeyed through the Sahara Desert; he saw the Arctic Circle and he cut ice in the Great Lakes with the greatest Navy in the world. Following his military career, Mr. Turnage, who loved books and learning his entire life, earned bachelor and master's degrees at The University of Florida and taught high school math and history following graduation. After retiring from teaching in the public schools, Mr. Turnage taught in a Florida Department of Corrections boot camp and was named Teacher of the Year in 1996. Later in life, Mr. Turnage became associate pastor at the First Community Church in Dade City, where he tended the needs of the congregation and others in the community. Mr. Turnage is also survived by a son, Steven Donald Turnage, a lawyer in Gainesville; a daughter, Susanne Myra Sessoms, a nurse in Zephyrhills; her husband, Byron Sessoms; and his three grandchildren, Katie Sandy (Turnage), an interior designer in Atlanta, Ga., Gregory Drew Turnage, a student and offensive lineman at Florida State University and Joseph Cohen Sessoms of Dade City. He was preceded in death by his parents, Emma and Marion Turnage, and his sister, Ginger. Mr. Turnage was a special husband, father, grandfather and mentor for many people. Learning from a hard childhood and many life experiences, Mr. Turnage could craft a meaningful sermon, but his greatest lesson came not from the pulpit, but from the thoughtful, tolerant and loving way he lived his life. A service for Mr. Turnage will be held at the church on March 24 at 11 a.m. with a viewing starting at 10 a.m. Mr. Turnage will be buried in the Florida National Cemetery in Bushnell. Hodges Family Funeral Home is handling arrangements.
