

Bulldogs' Boys Overcome Knights

A Tough 63-51 Victory On The Road

by Nolan Farnsworth

The Bulldogs and the Royal Knights of River Ridge renewed their rivalry Thursday night, but this time on the hardwood and not the gridiron.

Zephyrhills bounced back with the 63-51 win over the Knights after dropping the season opener to district foe Ridgewood 76-60 last week.

River Ridge came into the Doghouse looking for its first win after dropping the season opener to Pasco 62-58 last Tuesday.

The Bulldogs came out fast on offense and stifling on defense while streaking to an 8-0 lead and ended the first quarter outscoring the Knights 19-9.

"We just want to get out and run the ball early on [and] we were able to get out and run the floor," said Bulldogs coach Mike Novak.

Girls Face A Steep Learning Curve

Lady Bulldogs Can't Handle Mitchell

Story and photos by Dave Walters

It was a game for the Lady Bulldogs basketball team that was over quickly as a taller, faster and stronger Mitchell squad rolled over Zephyrhills 62-17 on Monday night.

For Dale Palmer's return to the coaching ranks at ZHS, this season is more of learning experience for his young squad than a quest for a title.

There was plenty to learn for the Lady Bulldogs as Mitchell jumped out to a 33-2 lead midway through the second quarter en route to a 42-6 halftime lead.

With a running clock in the second half, the Mustangs put up another 20 points, but the Lady Bulldogs managed to add 11, thanks to four points from Maya Hammond and three more from Taija to leave Zephyrhills clinging to a 30-28 lead going into the break.

The surprising stat from the first half was senior guard Anthony Antoine failing to register a bucket.

The Royal Knights came out of the break just as Zephyrhills did in the first quarter, gaining momentum as they forced Bulldog turnovers on the way to a 10-2 run. Novak called a timeout at the six-minute mark in the third to settle his boys down.

“We called the timeout and the guys knew,” Novak said. “I really didn’t have to say a whole lot. They really got after each other when they came out of the huddle. I said let’s show something. The game’s on the line right now.”

The timeout worked and Zephyrhills ended the third by regaining the lead and momentum.

But the Royal Knights roared back and the Bulldogs found themselves down by four in the fourth quarter with about three minutes to play. Zephyrhills dug themselves out to go on to win the first game of the season, 63-51.

A key component to the Bulldogs’ success was their performance at the free throw line. The Bulldogs were 16-of-19 from the charity stripe.

“That was the difference in the game,” Novak said.

Dante Marchman had a team high

15 points, Derico Quiles added 14 and Antoine ignited in the second half to score 14.

“He is a quiet guy, but whenever he wants to crank up, he will crank up,” Quiles said of Antoine’s second-half performance.

The Bulldogs are back in action Friday night in the first installment of the 9-Mile War against Pasco. Tipoff is set for 7:30 p.m.

Lady Bulldogs Can't Stop Pasco

Soccer Standout Leads Overwhelming Assault

Khyaara Grant avoids a Pasco defender while passing the ball to another player.

by Vincent Pensabene

Pasco defeated host Zephyrhills 9-1 in girls' soccer last Friday, bringing their win streak to six games.

Stellar junior forward Jordyn Kadlub knocked in three goals to give her 29 on the season, ranking her second in the nation in goals. She also is leading the nation in total points with 70 (29 goals, 12 assists) in only eight games into the season.

The game ended seven minutes into the second half because of the mercy rule (an eight goal advantage in the second half).

Pasco (7-1, 5-0) has dominated the 9-Mile War rivalry in soccer as of late, winning the last 11 matchups on the varsity level.

The Pirates scored early with their first goal four minutes into the game and kept up the offensive pressure on Zephyrhills, scoring six goals in a 20-minute stretch.

The Lady Bulldogs (0-8, 0-5) scored their goal midway through the first half by Jaydean Ireland.

end the game. With 32:56 remaining in the game, Kadlub scored her third goal.

The Bulldogs have another tough challenge when they visit Wesley Chapel to take on the Wildcats (6-1, 4-0).

"They are obviously a very good team," said Palmer, who returned to coaching after five years. "We have a long way to go."

Last Friday night, the Lady Bulldogs tasted victory defeating Wesley Chapel 41-38.

"I was hoping we could build off that," Palmer added. "We are young and these girls are making a lot of mental mistakes that they weren't coached out of before."

"All we can do is try to get better."

Annual Christmas Breakfast A Success

Park's Buffet Benefits Local Children

Story and photos by Keri McAlpine

For the second year in a row, the residents at Spanish Trails West came together to donate at least 100 toys for the Thomas Promise Foundation.

More than 125 residents gathered in the clubhouse Friday morning, leaving a toy under a Christmas tree as they entered. One by one, tables of guests took their turns filling their plates with a breakfast buffet, which included everything under the sun.

Tickets for the buffet were $8, which was all donated back to Thomas Promise and the Zephyrhills Elks Lodge #2731. Part of it was donated to the organizations from the Spanish Trails social club and the rest was donated back to the organizations from two 50/50 winners.

Thomas Promise will distribute the toys during the foundation's annual Dinner with Santa Christmas party on Dec. 15.

"We also have residents here who come and volunteer with us on a weekly basis and help us pack bags. So, their generosity is not only in the month of December but all through the year," said Dianna Thomas of Thomas Promise.

Past Exalted Ruler of the Elks Lodge Donna Moyer was present at the breakfast and thanked the residents for their help in the lodge's summer feeding program. With the help of volunteers from Spanish Trails West and Thomas Promise, the Elks served more than 4,000 meals this summer.

Last year's inaugural Christmas breakfast was held at the Golden Corral with about 80 residents. This year's breakfast was cooked up by resident Wendy Lewis, who was graciously thanked by the residents after the meal. She was also presented a gift certificate for her efforts.

Resident and event organizer Thomas Pete was happy to see how the community has rallied around a common cause throughout the past couple of years.

Santa Claus made an appearance at the end of the breakfast to help hand out raffle prizes to residents of Spanish Trails West.

In addition to the donations from the breakfast, the community always has a basket in the clubhouse welcoming food donations, which are regularly taken to Thomas Promise.

"It's amazing how it has brought the park together for one cause, to help the kids in Pasco County. That's huge for us here," Pete said.

A spirited Santa Claus made an appearance at the end of the event to help hand out the abundant amount of raffle prizes as thanks to the generous residents.
